Dear Sirs:

Thank you for hosting our web site. We truly appreciate you and the city of Rancho Palos Verdes for providing this service to the community.

We have only recently become aware of the services that your computer center offers. We will be telling our members about these services, knowing that many could make use of the classes and other offerings.

Sincerely,
